

This Week in Shoreline

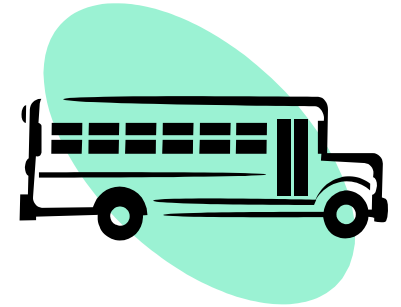

January 31, 2005

Highlights from the past week and previews of coming events

Cottage Housing Tours Scheduled

- Planning and Development Services has scheduled a cottage housing bus tour
 - February 5th and 12th; 11:00 am-2:00 pm; both days are identical tours
 - The tour will leave from the south end of the Interurban Trail at N 145th Street
 - This is a joint Planning Commission and Council special meeting that is open to the public
 - Contact Paul Cohen, Planner, for more information at (206) 546-6815

Northcrest Park – Eagle Scout Project Completed

Northcrest Park west entrance

Patty Hale, PRCS Board Co-chair, assisted with the project

Ball Field Preparation in Progress

- Backstops at Hillwood Park are being prepared for opening day of baseball season, which is March 1

- Light ballast equipment were replaced at Shoreline Park and Hamlin Park

Drainage Improvements Continue Throughout the City

Drainage work on Carlyle Hall Road

Drainage Improvements Continue Throughout the City

New catch basin on Carlyle Hall Road and Dayton Avenue N

Traffic Equipment Updates

- Battery backup units were installed to the traffic signals at Aurora Avenue N at N 175th and N 205th Streets

Traffic Equipment Updates

- The rebuilt traffic signal at N 155th Street and Meridian Avenue N

Gravel Shoulder Work in Progress

Road shoulder grading on Serpentine between 5th and 8th Avenues

Interurban Trail Construction Continues

- Stamped colored concrete crosswalks were installed at N 160th, N 165th, and N 167th Streets

Open House for North Central Segment of the Trail

- All residents are invited to learn more about the plans for the North Central segment of the Interurban Trail – 175th to 192nd Streets
 - February 10 Drop-in Open House
 - 5:30-8:00 pm; Shoreline Historical Museum at 749 N. 175th Street
 - Contact Dave Buchan at (206) 546-2005 for more information

Farewell Captain Carl Cole – Welcome Captain Dan Pingrey

- Captain Cole goes to the City of SeaTac
- Captain Pingrey starts in Shoreline February 1

Captain Cole goes to Seatac

Seeking Shoreline Stars

Shoreline Stars

- Seeking nominations for “Shoreline Stars” through February 14
- Between March and August, two citizens per month will be honored at Council meetings
- Criteria and forms are available at www.cityofshoreline.com

