PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, in the 2002 season, the Kings High School Boys Basketball team became one of only six schools to win back-to-back Class A boys basketball titles; and

WHEREAS, the team, with a 21 – 9 overall season came into the State tournament as underdogs; and

WHEREAS, the final game of the tournament was a rematch against Chinook League champion Seattle Christian, a team the Knights lost to twice during the regular season; and

WHEREAS, the Knights' unexpected 60 – 46 victory snapped a 22-game winning streak by Seattle Christian; and

WHEREAS, coach Marv Morris commended the boys for always playing together as a team and for peaking at just the right time;

NOW, THEREFORE, on behalf of the Shoreline City Council, I, Scott Jepsen, Mayor of the City of Shoreline, do hereby proclaim the week of March 24, 2002 as in the City of Shoreline and commend Coach Morris and the members of the boys basketball team for their continued success.

KINGS HIGH SCHOOL BOYS BASKETBALL WEEK

Scott Jepsen, Mayor
