Mayor McGlashan called the meeting to order at 6:00 p.m. He welcomed the attendees to Shoreline's new City Hall and everyone introduced themselves.

City of Edmonds, Council President DJ Wilson

Councilmember DJ Wilson discussed the affect the economic crisis is having on the City of Edmonds. He noted that his Council consist of six members with less than one term of experience. He concluded that they are focusing on environmental stewardship and smart planning practices.

City of Lake Forest Park, Mayor David Hutchinson

Mayor Hutchinson noted that the 1% levy lid has finally caught up with his City's budget, and LFP will put out a ballot issue for a levy lid lift on the August ballot. He also noted that there have been flooding issues that they are addressing and hopes that his City will receive a $3.1 million grant from the federal government.

City of Mountlake Terrace, Mayor Pro Tem Laura Sonmore

Mayor Pro Tem Sonmore discussed her City's financial health, along with capital investments and the need for economic development. She added that they are in the process of discussing the possibility of a civic campus with residents and a citywide vote takes place in November. Future events at the civic center would include a farmers market. Positively, she announced that her City has done a good job pursuing state and federal dollars and have secured $3.9 million over the past few years. She concluded with discussion about mixed use development in Mountlake Terrace, the Lakeview Trail and the possibility of combining it with the Interurban Trail.

Town of Woodway, Mayor Carla Nichols

Mayor Carla Nichols provided background on the Town of Woodway and stated that it was incorporated in 1958. She noted that the town has a “strong mayor” form of government with five councilmembers. She added that the town staff consists of 7.5 FTEs and most town services are contracted. She communicated that the town’s main challenges are trying to keep zoning stability and improve its stormwater utility.

City of Shoreline, Mayor Keith McGlashan

Mayor McGlashan discussed the City’s levy lid lift proposal and gave a brief synopsis on the Aurora Corridor progression. He referenced the City’s Town Center development and vision and the two probable light rail stations in the City. He also touched on animal control and encouraged the attendees to stay in touch with each other in the future.

The meeting adjourned at 6:30 p.m.

Scott Passey, City Clerk
