ISSUE STATEMENT:

The Mayors' Day of Concern for the Hungry provides an opportunity for cities to spotlight the needs and efforts their communities are taking to address hunger as a local concern. In Shoreline, fully one in four of our residents lacks the income to assure food security. This means these residents are making difficult choices between necessities and often rely on community resources for support. These resources include the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), weekend backpack for school kids, meal programs, and food banks. The meals programs, weekend backpacks and food banks all rely on generous donations of time, funds and food to be able to meet the growing demand in Shoreline.

As part of the regions' recognition of the Mayors' Day of Concern for the Hungry, Hopelink volunteers collected food and funds at Traders Joe's in Shoreline on September 15th. And Hopelink and other food pantries at schools and churches welcome ongoing contributions of food and funds.

Hopelink is Shoreline's largest food bank and is the major source of emergency financial support to Shoreline households. From July 2017 to June 2018, 2,611 individuals were served by Hopelink's food bank in Shoreline, a 13% increase over the previous year. Hopelink distributed 568,000 lbs. of food to these Shoreline residents.

Tonight, Malory Gustave, Hopelink's Associate Director of Housing and Case Management, will be accepting this proclamation on behalf of Hopelink and the community.

RECOMMENDATION

The Mayor should read and present the proclamation.
