

CITY COUNCIL AGENDA ITEM
CITY OF SHORELINE, WASHINGTON

AGENDA TITLE:	Proclamation Declaring Cesar Chavez Day in the City of Shoreline
DEPARTMENT:	CMO/CCK/D&I/PRCS
PRESENTED BY:	Jessica Simulcik Smith, City Clerk

ISSUE STATEMENT:

On March 31st of each year, the nation celebrates Cesar Chavez Day. A true champion for justice, Cesar Chavez advocated for and won many of the rights and benefits we now enjoy, and his spirit lives on in the hands and hearts of working women and men today.

Raised in the fields of Arizona and California, Cesar Chavez faced hardship and injustice from a young age. At the time, farm workers toiled in the shadows of society, vulnerable to abuse and exploitation. Families like Chavez's were impoverished; exposed to hazardous working conditions and dangerous pesticides; and often denied clean drinking water, toilets, and other basic necessities.

Cesar Chavez saw the need for change and made a courageous choice to work to improve the lives of his fellow farm workers. This proclamation calls upon all citizens to observe this day with appropriate service, community, and educational programs to honor Cesar Chavez's enduring legacy.

Cesar Garcia and Peggy Hernandez, Shoreline residents who have been active in supporting the Shoreline Arts Festival, have served as consultants for The Arts Council's first Dia De Muertos Event, and have provided guidance and inspiration in bringing Latinx cultural activities to Shoreline, will be present to accept the proclamation.

RECOMMENDATION

The Mayor should read the proclamation.

Approved By: City Manager City Attorney

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Cesar Chavez was raised in the fields of Arizona and California, where he faced hardship and injustice from a young age, exposed to hazardous and unclean working conditions; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Chavez saw the need for change and made a courageous choice to work to improve the lives of his fellow farm workers, and with quiet leadership and a powerful voice, founded the United Farm Workers (UFW) with Dolores Huerta, launching one of our Nation's most inspiring social movements; and

WHEREAS, a true champion for justice, Mr. Chavez advocated for and won many of the rights and benefits we now enjoy; and

WHEREAS, we face the challenges of our day, let us do so with the hope and determination of Cesar Chavez, echoing the words that were his rallying cry and continue to inspire so many today: "Sí, se puede – Yes, we can";

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Will Hall, Mayor of the City of Shoreline, on behalf of the Shoreline City Council, hereby proclaim March 31, 2019 as in the City of Shoreline, and call upon all citizens to observe this day with appropriate service, community, and educational programs to honor Cesar Chavez's enduring legacy.

Will Hall, Mayor
