

CITY COUNCIL AGENDA ITEM
CITY OF SHORELINE, WASHINGTON

AGENDA TITLE:	Adoption of Ordinance No. 316, amending the 2002 Budget for the Unemployment Fund
DEPARTMENT:	Finance
PRESENTED BY:	Debbie Tarry

PROBLEM/ISSUE STATEMENT:

The 2002 Adopted Budget contained an appropriation of $8,259 for the Unemployment Fund. It now appears that this appropriation will not be sufficient to meet the projected 2002 expenditures within the fund. Expenditures in the Unemployment Fund are projected to total $30,000 in 2002. The City is charged directly by the State for all applicable unemployment benefits paid to former employees. Although this amount is greater than charges in previous years, we expect this cost to decline during late 2002 and early 2003. There are sufficient reserves that have accumulated from prior years to cover these 2002 costs.

The Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 35A.33.120(1) requires that the expenditure of city funds or the incurring of current liabilities on behalf of the city shall be limited to the total amount appropriated for each fund in the budget for the current fiscal year. In order for expenditures in the Fund to stay within the legal appropriation, an amendment is necessary to increase the appropriation to the required level.

ALTERNATIVES ANALYZED:Alternative 1: Take no action.

If the Council chose not to approve this budget amendment the expenditures within the Fund would exceed the legal appropriation, which would be a violation of State law.

Alternative 2: Approve Ordinance No. 316 (Recommended)

Approval of ordinance No. 316 will provide the budget authority to adequately meet the projected expenditures within the Unemployment Fund.

FINANCIAL IMPACT:

The following table summarizes the budget amendment request and the impact that this has on the fund's reserve level.

Fund	2002 Beginning Fund Balance	Current 2002 Appropriation	Budget Amendment Request	Resulting 2002 Appropriation	Resulting 2003 Available Beginning Fund Balance
Unemployment Fund	$81,413	$8,259	$21,741	$30,000	$59,672
