I saw these kudos for SeeClickFix and CRT on nextdoor today:

Our City responds to service requests through an app called See Click Fix. I have heard of it before but never bothered with it, until today.

This morning I reported a hole in the road that was deeper and scarier than it appeared at first glance; it was filled in by this afternoon, with a business card left behind. Looks like you can report vandalism, graffiti, vegetation issues and such as well.

Nicely done, CRT. Handy dandy app!
