Subject: Shoreline is an example of smart planning!

Hi Rachael,

I was at a NAIOP meeting this morning about Density, Sprawl, and Puget Sound. After the speaker, Hillary Franz with Futurewise, discussed her frustration with Seattle, she was asked to give an example of a local city that is doing the right thing. She said the City of Shoreline is doing great planning, and discussed planning for the future 185th St Sound Transit Station. Congratulations!

Take care,
