Racial Equity Library

Minty LongEarth & Thanh Truong

Intent & Purpose

- Intent: Provide accessible and informative library of resources.

- Purpose: Provide no-filter, ongoing resources and information about racial equity for Haz Waste Program.

Quote by Kenneth G. Ortiz
Art by unknown source

Audience & Engagement

- Self-directed, self-exploration.
- Racial equity is heart work.
- No hierarchy.
- Content = tools for conversation.
- Create/submit content to library.

Art from igotpro.com

Tour Time!

Keeping racial equity at the forefront

- The Racial Equity Library is one answer to the question, "Where do I start?"

- The library provides ongoing resources that keeps racial equity practice top-of-mind between formal trainings.

Your Role

- Engage with the library!
- Share the library! Internally and externally.
  - A one-pager with info about the library and how to get access for groups within or outside the King County network is available upon request.

How to get access to the site

Non-King County Employees:

Please follow the steps below – you will only have to do this once. If you have any questions, please contact Kristin Painter at Kristin.Painter@kingcounty.gov.

- Use/Create a Microsoft Online Account.
  - If you already use Office 365 or Outlook, you can use your existing account.
  - If you do not use Office 365 or Outlook, you can use any email address to register for a Microsoft Account at https://login.live.com.
- Visit King County's SharePoint access for non-King County employees web page and read the Terms of Use.
- At the bottom of the web page, fill out and submit the King County User Agreement form with the following information:
  - King County contact email address: Kristin.Painter
  - Agency/Office: DNRP
  - Site URL: https://kc1.sharepoint.com/teams/HWRacialEquity
- Enter your name, Microsoft Online Account e-mail address, phone number, and company/organization name.
- After your form has been reviewed and processed (allow up to 5 business days), you will receive an email with a hyperlink to access the SharePoint site.

Questions?

Minty LongEarth | mlongearth@kingcounty.gov

Thanh Truong | thtruong@kingcounty.gov