Chief's Message

Happy Friday,

First, I want to thank everyone who participated in Celebrate Shoreline last Saturday. The weather cooperated and we had a great turnout. The community appreciated your presence at the event and the displays of the patrol cars and the Bear were a big hit.

As some of you heard, the Sheriff is looking to increase our recruiting efforts for KCSO. I want to remind everyone that we are all recruiters for the department. The command staff recognizes that many of our challenges come from our staffing issues. If you know someone who is considering getting into this career or another law enforcement buddy who is looking for a change, please pitch KCSO to them. This is an honorable career with good people who work here; please help get that message out.

We have a new addition to graveyard patrol. Deputy Josh Harazim has joined our ranks. Please welcome him to the team when you get a chance.

Take care,

- Chief Tommy Collins

They Made It!

Congratulations to Sergeant Kurtis Andrews, Sergeant Ian Campbell, and Deputy Kris Goundar on making it off their respective probations this month. When you see them around, congratulate them on their accomplishment.

- Captain Brian Angelo

Graveyard is Where the Magic Happens

I would also like to congratulate Deputy Kris Goundar on completing his probation. When you see him next, you can ask him about the honor he recently received of being inducted into an esteemed law enforcement organization.

- Detective Sergeant Joe Merclich

Partnering for Good

We have exciting news to share! Shoreline Police is partnering with the BlueBridge Alliance. This program will give our department's officers the ability to offer community members a 'hand up.' Please visit their website and our partner page at the links below.

Please reach out to your supervisor and Captain Woodruff if you have any questions or would like to participate.

Respectfully,

- Captain Neil Woodruff
