Chief's Message

Happy Friday,

I just finished a presentation with Jimmy Hung, Chief Prosecutor for the KCPAO Juvenile Division. His group has a presentation discussing the YAC law passed by the legislature in 2022. In a nutshell, there will be an online training coming out to discuss when it is ok to talk to juveniles without counsel present and when we need to call the hotline provided by the state for a juvenile suspect to talk to an attorney. Stay tuned for more on this.

Shop with a Cop is upcoming on December 13. Detective Velie has been hard at work trying to get this off the ground. I am looking forward to this event and hoping that many of you can stop by. Unfortunately, there are no O/T funds for this so participation would be voluntary.

I am heading out of town for Thanksgiving with the family on Sunday. I hope each and every one of you have a great Thanksgiving. For those who are working the holiday this year, I truly appreciate the sacrifice that you make to serve our community. It does not go unnoticed by me, the captains, or the residents of our city.

Take care,

- Chief Tommy Collins
