Storefront Services and Volunteers

Service, Integrity, Leadership, Teamwork

What is a storefront?

• • • • •

The Shoreline Police Department follows a community policing philosophy. This approach differs from traditional policing by forging a partnership between citizens and police to solve problems and prevent crime. Two Neighborhood Police Centers or “storefronts” at 624 NW Richmond Beach Rd. and 521 NE 165 St., serve as liaisons between the community and police. Each storefront is staffed by one police officer and citizen volunteers to address questions and assist in solving issues that are of concern to the community.

City of Shoreline Officials ensure that city documents and other pertinent literature is available at the storefronts. The City Clerk's Office regularly updates documents available at storefronts.

Volunteer activities

Established in 1996, Shoreline Police Storefront Volunteers now average about 400 hours a month. Their activities include but are not limited to: managing the court notification program, making vacation house checks, monitoring parks through citizen park patrols, updating E-911 business emergency contacts, assisting with the Home and Business Security Survey (known as CPTED – Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design), helping with the Victim Call Back Program, Block Watch mapping, helping with crime analysis, publishing crime prevention articles, planning and participating in community events such as the Celebrate Shoreline parade and crime prevention booths, volunteering for the Senior Interaction Group, working with the Shoreline Police Community Services Officer, issuing Pet Licenses, assisting with traffic safety by use of the radar gun and reader board and making referrals to the city of Shoreline's Neighborhood Traffic Safety Program, answering phone inquiries and helping citizens who daily drop in with concerns.

Many volunteers are graduates of the Citizen's Police Academy.
