Aurora Corridor Project

N. 145th – N. 165th Streets

CONSTRUCTION UPDATE

Week of November 14 – 18, 2005

This week crews will be:

- Performing pressure testing and flushing of the new water main on the west side of Aurora between N. 145th Street and N. 155th Street. (Night work.)
- Undergrounding electrical and communications utilities along the west side of Aurora, moving north from N. 165th Street to the project terminus. Crews will work on the installation of a large utility vault near Shoreline Family Auto.
- Installing the storm water system main line along the west side of Aurora moving north from N. 163rd Street.
- Installing a storm line connection crossing N. 160th Street at the Aurora Square entrance. (Night work.)
- Pouring foundations and columns for the north portion of the N. 155th Street Bridge and west portion of the Aurora Bridge.

Construction staging continues along Westminster Way. To avoid possible congestion caused by construction staging along Westminster Way, motorists and pedestrians are encouraged to use N. 155th Street instead.

Police officers will be on site to help with traffic control and safety in the construction area. Please drive carefully and observe the temporary construction speed limit of 35 MPH.
