

Aurora Corridor Project

N 145th – N 165th Street

Simulation of bridge spanning Aurora Avenue

A better, safer place to travel and do business

AURORA CORRIDOR & INTERURBAN TRAIL BRIDGES

Aurora Construction Manager: (206) 306-0355
24-Hour City Response: (206) 546-1700

Contractor: Gary Merlino Construction Design: CH2M Hill, OTAK
Construction Manager: Harris & Associates

Project Funding Partners:

Federal Highway Administration, Transportation Improvement Board,
Seattle City Light, Washington Wildlife & Recreation Program (IAC),
WSDOT, Seattle Public Utilities and King County Metro

July 2005

Ground-breaking ceremony

August 2005

Construction begins with island removal and temporary pavement

August 2005

Business access signs
begin to go into place

August 2005

Utility undergrounding begins –
Seattle City Light vault installed

September 2005

Drainage installation work

October 2005

Conduit installation work continues

November 2005

Existing abutment demolition for
N 155th Street bridge

November 2005

Form & rebar installation for bridge pier footing

December 2005

Large crane used to install stormwater treatment system

January 2006

Artistic, concrete panels for MSE wall
(bridge approach ramp) begin to arrive

February 2006

Concrete placement for
Aurora bridge column

March 2006

Curb and gutter work begins
on west side

April 2006

New driveway apron

April 2006

Crews begin to pour colored concrete crosswalks on west side

April 2006 Inside of MSE wall with tie-backs to stabilize artistic concrete panels

April – May 2006

MSE wall goes up

May 2006

West side paving begins

May 2006

Aurora bridge girders installed

06.28.2006 08:15

06.28.2006

June 2006

Aurora bridge deck poured

Upcoming Work

- Continue Aurora bridge work
- Set girders for N. 155th St. bridge
- Pour concrete for sidewalks, curbs & driveways on east side of Aurora
- Install bus shelters and irrigation
- Construct retaining walls in various locations

More Information

Aurora Corridor and Interurban Trail Project
Manager Kirk McKinley (206) 546-3901

www.shorelineaurora.com

